

Information as of the end of March 2026:

Composition by Instrument

Composition by Interest Rate

As of the end of March 2026, Enel Colombia's financial debt (excluding Central America) reached COP 9.43 trillion.

During the first quarter of 2026, the Company disbursed a COP 30,000 million loan with Banco Davivienda on February 27, 2026, with a 10-year tenor, through Findeter's energy efficiency rediscount credit line for the generation business. The proceeds were allocated to general corporate purposes.